Designed for extensive sharing and engagement, both within your organization and publicly, we urge you to market this program widely to enhance its visibility and success. A minimum purchase of 20 tickets is required for special rates.

1. ESTABLISH A PURCHASE DEADLINE for your ticket program.

Please note, tickets expire one year from the issue date and must be used within this timeframe. Unfortunately, Arf & Wag Studio cannot extend or upgrade tickets beyond their expiration.
3. CREATE an Individual Order Form to distribute. The order form should provide members of your organization with ordering instructions including purchase rates, order deadlines, quantity of tickets, ticket expiration date, payment method (check made out to your organization) and your general ticket distribution timeline. Members of your organization will complete this order form and submit to your program administrator with payment. If your ticket count does not match your order, please call (515) 601-3103, before separating any tickets in your order. Package each individual order with an original copy of the order form submitted to your program administrator. When distributing orders, review each individual order form with your customer and count the tickets in front of them. We also recommend you keep a detailed spreadsheet to track who received which tickets with their ID numbers. Do not release or distribute orders without a signature.
